Diseases know no borders

All living beings, regardless of their species, share a same world and its health challenges. By responding to animal health emergencies, fostering research, and reinforcing Veterinary Services worldwide, the World Organisation for Animal Health ensures a safer and more resilient future for all. Because animal health is our health. It's everyone's health.

Access the Activity Report 2021: Animal health is everyone's health

English | Français | Español

Latest News

The Organisation launches a refreshed brand identity

A new narrative, identity and logo provide more clarity to the Organisation's critical mandate. Read more
Surprise: the effects of animal diseases
Since October 2021, over 21 million cases in poultry have been reported in several regions of the world. Read more

Launch of the United Against Rabies website
Supported by WOAH and its Tripartite partners, this forum takes a multi-sectoral, One Health approach to ending all human deaths from dog-mediated rabies. Read more

What is the Observatory?
Better understanding the programme through a prototype on African swine fever. Read more

New project for community animal health workers
The project aims to contribute to building an enabling environment for community animal health workers. Read more

---

Knowledge

A study on equids
Husbandry and movement patterns of equids in South-East Asia and the Read more

GF-TADs Strategy for 2021–2025
Wildlife diseases
WOAH publishes 'Sensitivity of an international notification system for wildlife diseases: A case study using the WAHIS data on tularemia' in Zoonoses and Public Health. Read more

Use of antimicrobials in animals trends downwards
WOAH report shows promising trends in the race to fight antimicrobial resistance and preserve the efficacy of these critical medicines. Read more

From our network
A new Collaborating Centre in aquaculture
Reinforcing our commitment in the fight against antimicrobial resistance in aquaculture. Read more

A tribute to Professor Andre Parodi
We pay tribute to Professor Andre Parodi who died on 15 May 2022. Read more

Latest Self-Declarations

Events this month

14 June
The launch of our regional Twitter accounts
Africa | Americas | Asia
Europe | Middle East

9 June
Special Meeting of the SEACFMD National Coordinators focused on FMD Preparedness and Response Read more

7 June
World Food Safety Day
Safer food, better health

In Asia | In the Americas

Help improve our newsletter
E-mail your feedback to: bulletin@woah.org

World Organisation for Animal Health
Founded as OIE